The Bill of Rights Institute announced today that it has received a grant from the Texas Bar Foundation to help the Institute support educators throughout the state.

Since its inception in 1965, the Texas Bar Foundation has awarded more than $28 million in grants to law-related programs. Supported by members of the State Bar of Texas, the Texas Bar Foundation is the nation's largest charitably-funded bar foundation.

The Texas Bar Foundation's generous $10,000 grant will support the Bill of Rights Institute's professional development programs in Texas, where the Institute currently works with more than 7,000 civics and history teachers.

Bill of Rights Institute President and CEO David Bobb said that the Institute was honored to earn the Texas Bar Foundation's support, which will benefit teachers throughout the state.

"We are deeply proud of our ongoing work supporting civic and history education in Texas," Bobb said. "That work depends on the generosity of organizations like the Texas Bar Foundation. We are grateful for the Texas Bar Foundation's support and its long-standing commitment to civic education throughout Texas."
