guiding the women's team to an undefeated season against Division III competitors in 2020. His coaching career also spans experience at Saint Francis University (PA.), where he established the women's water polo program, and Caltech, where he oversaw the women's and men's teams revitalizing the latter, achieving significant milestones.

“We are thrilled to welcome Pat to the RBAC” said Melanie Sauer, Interim Executive Director. “His dedication to the sport, exceptional coaching pedigree, and passion for athlete development make him the ideal leader for our water polo program. We look forward to the program's evolution and seeing him inspire our athletes.”

In addition to his roles at La Verne, Saint Francis, and Caltech, Pat has coached at Indiana University, where his Men’s Club team achieved a record-breaking season in 2011, and Wagner College, where he led the team to NCAA Championship appearances. A former goalkeeper for UC San Diego, Pat holds a bachelor's degree in history and a master’s degree in secondary education from Wagner.

“I am honored to join the RBAC team and lead the Rose Bowl Water Polo Club,” shared Pat. “I look forward to building on the club’s deep foundation, working with talented athletes, parents, and coaches to support a culture of excellence and sportsmanship. Together, we will achieve new levels of success.”

Pat will begin his new role at the RBAC on December 4, 2024. Please join us in celebrating this exciting new chapter for the Rose Bowl Water Polo Club. The RBWPC is a competitive water polo club where student-athletes are led by an incredible coaching staff that includes current local high school, collegiate, zone team, and National Team coaches.
