Aaron "Blowout" Morrow of Blowout Biker Productions will be returning as the events Entertainment Manager, Stage Manager, and Emcee. Blowout needs little introduction as he's been Emceeing bike rallies and seen on stages throughout Texas, at Sturgis, and more.

Thunder is coming and the party is coming with us!"

Lonnie Fitch

Thunder in the Hill Country attendees will enjoy live music on an outdoor stage, tons of vendors, tasty grub at multiple food trucks, bike and field games, tattoo contests, after parties, a bike show with $1,000 cash prize, a fun run through the famous Three Twisted Sisters, an Opening Ceremony and presentation of the colors with the Mayor of Bandera, and much more.

This year's concert lineup includes a mix of Outlaw Country and good old Rock N Roll. Thursday night features the Monty Branham Band and Last Train to Juarez. The Friday night lineup features Reb Jacobs, the James Henry Band, and The Kaleidoscope Project. Saturday's line up features Dean Seltzer, Victim, and Whiskey Hangover, a top rated Godsmack tribute band.

General admission passes for the entire weekend are only $60, and all pre-registered guests receive a free Event T-shirt. Tent camping is free with the purchase of a weekend pass. Electric and self-contained RV camping is available on-site. Pre-registration is strongly recommended to ensure availability. Rally attendees who choose to stay offsite still have plenty of choices in the local area including Al's Hideaway in Pipe Creek, The Springs Retreat in Leaky, or Backroads Reservations just to name a few.

VIP upgrades for the bike rally are limited and will sell out quickly. The VIP upgrade provides guests access to the Sidecar Saloon VIP Beer Garden with private front and side-stage viewing of concerts, interaction with the bands, and free adult beverages.

Lonnie Fitch, GM of Biker Rallies of Texas stated, "Thunder is coming and the party is coming with us! I want to personally thank our many sponsors for making Thunder in the Hill Country possible. We've got one hell of a party planned."

Bandera officials advised that residents should take extra care on the road during the weekend of the rally and watch out for motorcycles. While there will be a rise in traffic, Bandera welcomes the annual event as it brings a significant increase in revenue to local businesses.
