

Cammy Smith Receives Prestigious Investment News Rising Stars Award in 2024

BLOOMINGTON, MN, UNITED STATES,
November 20, 2024 /

EINPresswire.com/ -- Integrated Equity Management (IEM) is thrilled to announce our CEO & President, Cammy Smith, has been honored with the prestigious Rising Stars award by Investment News. This award serves as a testament to her unwavering contributions to the financial services community and IEM clients.

The Rising Stars Award (formerly known as 40 Under 40) is a highly respected accolade in our industry, and we are incredibly proud of Cammy being named a recipient this year. We believe this achievement directly reflects Cammy's dedication and impact on the health of our company and the clients we serve, while also shining a positive light on the success women leaders can have in the industry.

Integrated Equity Management CEO Cammy Smith

"We are truly honored for Cammy to have received this award. It serves as a reminder of her ongoing commitment to excellence for our clients and being a role model for young women looking to make their mark in the financial services world," said Ted Smith, Founder & Chairman of IEM. "We could not be prouder of the leader, confidant, and visionary she has become and continues to be since becoming CEO & President of our company in January 2021."

"As we celebrate this special milestone, it's important for me to say that this award is a reflection of our entire team at IEM, and I don't think I could have received it without their hard work, support, and commitment to putting our clients first – always," said CEO & President, Cammy Smith. "I extend my heartfelt gratitude to everyone at Investment News who had a hand in selecting me as honoree this year. This award is a symbol of our collective efforts, and we look forward to maintaining our commitment to helping ensure our clients feel well-taken care of, confident, and free.”
