

Asia Bitumen, Base Oil and Lubricants (ABBL) 2025 – Where Southeast Asia, China, India, and the Middle East Converge

Petrosil and Enmore Announce ABBL Bangkok 2025: Asia's Leading Bitumen, Base Oil and Lubricants Event

BANGKOK , THAILAND, November 20, 2024 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Industry leaders Petrosil and Enmore are proud to announce the 1st Asia Bitumen, Base Oil, and Lubricants (ABBL) Conference and Exhibition, set to take place on April 24, 2025, at the Siam Kempinski Hotel in Bangkok, Thailand.

This landmark event promises to bring together key stakeholders, market experts, and decision-makers from across China, India, Southeast Asia, and the Middle East, solidifying Bangkok as the regional hub for bitumen, base oil, and lubricants.

Driving Growth in Asia and the Middle East

The bitumen, base oil, and lubricants markets in Asia and the Middle East are experiencing rapid growth, driven by surging infrastructure development, urbanization, and increasing demand for automotive and industrial lubricants. With countries in Southeast Asia, India and China investing heavily in infrastructure projects, and the Middle East solidifying its role as a global energy powerhouse, these markets are primed for expansion. ABBL 2025 offers a unique platform to explore these dynamic opportunities. As one of the world's fastest-growing regions for bitumen, base oil, lubricants, and wax markets, Asia, and particularly Southeast Asia, is poised for explosive growth. The ABBL Conference will connect key players from powerhouse countries like China, India, South Korea, Singapore, Thailand, Indonesia, Malaysia, Vietnam, the Philippines, Japan, and Australia with other vital markets in the region.
