VAP Group announces the 2nd edition of the Global AI Show at the Grand Hyatt Exhibition Centre, Dubai

by a leading media network Times of AI. It will be led by a multidisciplinary advisory board - the Global AI Advisory Board - composed of industry experts such as Jamie Metzl, Healthcare Futurist, Geopolitical Expert and Author of Hacking Darwin; Alaa Moussawi, Chief Data Scientist at the New York City Council, among others, who will regularly meet to discuss key industry developments through the year as well as be the committee steering conversations that happen live on stage.

"The Global AI Show is more than just a one-time event. With over 100 C-suite speakers and a community of over 110,000 people, it will bring the whole AI ecosystem under one roof," said Vishal Parmar, Founder and Chief Executive Officer of VAP Group.

H.E. Dr. Mohammed Al Kuwaiti, Head of Cyber Security Council, UAE Government; Lt. Col. Dr. Essa Al Mutawa, Chief AI Officer, Dubai Civil Defence H.Q.; Dr. Marwan Alzarouni, CEO - AI, Dubai Economy and Tourism; Georges De Moura, Group CISO & Vice President, EDGE; Dr. Dirk Jungnickel, SVP Enterprise & Analytics & Intelligence, Emirates Group; Alexis Jean- Baptiste, Chief Data & Analytics Officer, LÓreal, and many more will be present to lead discussions around the application and future of AI in various industries.

While the world is gearing towards an AI-driven future, where technological evolution has unveiled a transformed tomorrow full of possibilities, significant risks, concerns and questions continue to persist. How effective are the emerging strategies for governing AI? How is AI already making groundbreaking progress that may alter the course of humanity? Where do the major opportunities lie between the potential benefits and fear surrounding these monumental changes?

"The Global AI Show is committed to steer these crucial conversations, unravel answers, navigate groundbreaking developments and explore strategies that balance the transformative potential of AI in a multitude of sectors including healthcare, cybersecurity, governance, fintech, data and analytics," said Vishal Parmar.
