

Birthered from the Sea in 1939: A Brunch & Shopping Journey

As one of the oldest nonprofit organizations in the county, Opportunity is dedicated to building a better community for its children.

PALM BEACH, FL, UNITED STATES, November 20, 2024 /EINPresswire.com/ -- On November 6, 2024, a nostalgic seaside brunch paid homage to Opportunity's chronicles and birth from the sea in 1939. The event took place at the Sailfish Club of Florida, which boasts its history as the oldest continuously operating private club in Palm Beach.

The brunch and shopping journey was an experience with a curation of ocean treasures and captivating illustrations that inspired the committee that brought this event to life.

As one of the oldest nonprofit organizations in the county, Opportunity is dedicated to building a better community for its children.

Opportunity Early Childhood Education & Family Center, Inc. was founded in the early 1930s by members of the Episcopal Church Guild of Bethesda-by-the-Sea in Palm Beach, Florida. The women wanted to help those less fortunate, especially during the Great Depression when children were going hungry. Opportunity's mission is to help children of working families achieve academic and life success through educational programs and family support. The organization's curriculum is tailored to each child's individual needs to help them reach their developmental goals.

Sponsors and underwriters of this seaside brunch included Darian and Zach Ablon, MacLaren and Rochelle Cummings, Fischer, Robert Paul* and Brenda Fritz, Pilar Alvarez-Palazio, Valerie Frost, Kimberly Goodwin, Howard and Julie Rudolph, Jenny Slayton-Green, Katherine Ward, Jessica Cunningham, Samantha Curry, Courtney-Celeste Fisch, Marley Overman, Cameron Preston, Pure Skin Palm Beach, Elizabeth Safro, Tara Vecellio, Jennifer and Chris Lazzara, John
