The literary world welcomes three delightful new children's books that promise to captivate young readers and encourage imagination, kindness, and healthy habits. From tales of selflessness to fun adventures with furry friends, these books are perfect additions to any child's library.

In Max's Gift, Carolyn Bradley brings readers a heartwarming story of compassion and the joy of giving. This tale follows Max, a little boy with a big heart, as he discovers the power of kindness. Perfect for teaching children the value of helping others, this book is a beautiful reminder that even the smallest gestures can make the biggest difference.

Oh Olive by Kelley Lamm is a whimsical journey into the world of a playful and curious pup named Olive. With Olive's hilarious antics and spirited personality, young readers are sure to laugh, learn, and find a new furry friend to love. This book highlights the joy of exploration and the importance of embracing life's unexpected moments.

Dr. Ida Acuña-Garza's Super Copper - Yoga Cat introduces readers to Copper, a lovable cat with a knack for yoga and self-care. Encouraging kids to stay active and flexible, Copper demonstrates fun yoga poses that promote relaxation and stress relief. This engaging story not only entertains but also inspires young readers to adopt healthy habits in their daily lives.

These enchanting titles are now available for purchase at wplighthouse.com. Perfect for readers of all ages, they make thoughtful gifts and are ideal for sparking a love of reading in children.
