Also included are several lots of the ever-popular Blanton's Single Barrel Bourbon. Beginning in 1999 a collector's set of eight different stoppers was produced featuring a horse and jockey in different strides and poses resembling the stages of a horse race, from beginning to end. Each stopper is marked with a single letter that spells Blanton's when the set has been completed. The final stopper, marked by "S" always finishes the race in victory.
