“I'm deeply honored to receive this recognition from NAPABA,” said Alexander Payne, Assistant Managing Partner at Minyard Morris. “It's a privilege to be recognized among such a talented group of attorneys who dedicate themselves to making a positive impact around the country. It's why I became a lawyer. I want to make a positive impact in the lives of others, and it fuels my passion to continue advocating for justice and equality.”

NAPABA is the nation's largest Asian-Pacific American membership organization, representing the interests of 80,000 attorneys, judges, law professors, and law students. Approximately 10 people across North America receive this prestigious award annually. The NAPABA “Best Under 40” Award recognizes members of the AANHPI legal community who have achieved exceptional prominence in their respective fields, including academia, business, civic and charitable affairs, the judiciary, or politics.

“We’re incredibly proud because this award’s reserved for the best of the best. The entire firm can attest to the fact that Alexander embodies that,” said Mark E. Minyard, Managing Partner of Minyard Morris. “He’s one of the only Family Law Attorneys to have ever won their recognition, so he’s truly a trailblazer. He carries that commitment to excellence into everything he does.”

Alexander received this award due to his inspiring background, involvement in various legal communities, and exceptional skill in family law. Alex’s work offering free legal assistance to low-income residents and volunteering for Orange County Korean American Bar Association Foundation’s legal clinics also factored into this honor. In addition, Alex was admitted in 2023 as a fellow to the American Academy of Matrimonial Lawyers (AAML). AAML is a nonprofit organization whose mission is to provide leadership that promotes the highest degree of professionalism and excellence in the practice of family law. The organization selectively admits the most distinguished family law attorneys in the country.
