About The Author

Born into an Italian family in Birmingham, Alabama, Jerry Guzzetta had seen many of his relatives and close family members join the different military branches. Perhaps, early inspirations led him to join the forces later on in his life. But life wasn't as simple as it seems, He recalls being directionless in early days of his life, assuming to spend the rest of his life doing nothing but chill at a beach. Fortune had other plans, and he was finally admitted in the military at a very early age, and that is where his journey to eventually author this book begins. A graduate of science degree in the Administration of Justice and Aviation, Guzzetta was always fond of telling stories, and his colleagues, friends always wanted him to venture into book writing, which he eventually did 20 years ago when he first wrote the book "INFLIGHT Magazine" about a forthcoming military helicopter.
