In "Circus Acts," Zini takes readers on a chilling journey through the dark mind of Professor Kendrick Laberday, a disarmingly charming sociopath on a personal mission for revenge. Set against the backdrop of the 2008 Great Recession, the novel explores the financial devastation many faced during the crisis and the wrath of one man who takes justice into his own hands. Laberday, a man who has lost everything, is determined to make those who wronged him pay, dispensing his own brand of public justice with deadly consequences.

The plot twists and turns as Minneapolis detectives Mark Truitt and Sylvia "Sylkie" Maune are thrust into a case that grows ever more baffling and dangerous. As they pursue Laberday's deadly trail, the line between right and wrong blurs, revealing shocking truths about the man at the center of this twisted circus of vengeance.

Don't miss this opportunity to get a signed copy of a compelling new thriller. Learn more about David Zini's "Circus Acts" at the Miami Book Fair, dive deeper into the book's themes, and explore the unforgettable world of Professor Kendrick Laberday.
