"The End of Beginning" tells the remarkable story of Pastor Dan Willis, who, at just 16 years old, took on the monumental task of leading a church in Chicago, a city fraught with division, violence, and socio-economic disparity. LaChele dives deep into Willis's journey and the foundation he laid at the Lighthouse Church of All Nations—an inclusive, multicultural community built on faith, prayer, and purpose. Her intimate account, filled with sermons and reflections, chronicles the church's growth from a dream to a thriving sanctuary uniting diverse communities.

In "Naked and Unashamed," LaChele opens up about the struggles and rewards of living authentically in a world that often judges. Through her candid reflections on her personal walk with God, LaChele invites readers to embrace vulnerability and find strength in transparency. This book offers a raw, unflinching look at faith, redemption, and the grace that can shine through our most difficult moments.

Join PJ LaChele at the Miami Book Fair for a heartfelt discussion, book engagement, and an opportunity to connect with a writer who brings her truth to the world with courage and grace.
