"Dying to Ski" introduces readers to Mary MacIntosh, a tenacious defense attorney who takes on a high-stakes case involving Michael O'Connor, a pharmaceutical executive accused of murdering his business partner in a skiing "accident" in Jackson Hole, Wyoming. As MacIntosh investigates, she uncovers a trail of deception, intrigue, and dangerous secrets, leading her to question her loyalty to her client. With a complex web of relationships involving cheating spouses and mysterious deaths, the novel takes readers on a thrilling ride full of twists and suspense.

Maureen Anne Meehan, an author with a rich background in law, writes compelling legal thrillers that blend her legal expertise with gripping storytelling. With intricate plots and unique blend of legal drama and suspense, Meehan's Mary MacIntosh series includes "Snake River Secret," "Pandemic Predator," "Poisoned by Proxy," "Powder River Poison," "The Five," "Rodeo," "Deputy Dawg or D.B. Cooper," "Pumpkin Buttes," "Prison Break," and "Red Hands."

Don't miss the chance to meet Maureen Anne Meehan and get a signed copy of "Dying to Ski."
