We are thrilled to support these talented amateur boxers. One of the teen athletes was part of our PeakKEIKI launch earlier this year. We're excited to help more athletes like her!"

Sixty amateur boxers, aged 8–38, from across the Hawaiian Islands will participate in the first tournament since pre-COVID that brings together boxers from Oāahu, the Big Island, Kauaī, and Maui. The 30 matches will feature youth (ages 8–17) and adult (ages 18–38) divisions, organized by experience level:

- Novice: 10 or fewer fights
- Open: More than 10 fights
- Featured Match: A highlight bout between two top lightweight contenders from Oāahu and Maui

Ringside tables are available by reservation, and general seating will be available at the door. Parking is available at the gym and two neighboring lots. Proceeds from the event will fund a commemorative plaque for the Okamura family. Remaining revenues, after expenses, will support the Pālolo Boxing Gym's non-profit program, helping provide gear, supplies, volunteer coach training, certificates, and first aid kits.
