Highfill Painting Team

“

It is our vision and our mission to raise the level of standard on what it means to be a painting contractor.”

Matthew Highfill

The comprehensive digital transformation reflects the company's journey from Matt Highfill's initial vision of elevating industry standards to becoming one of Richmond's most trusted painting contractors. The new website serves as a testament to the company's commitment to transparency, professionalism, and customer service excellence.

"As a Richmond west end native, I've always believed in the power of combining old-school craftsmanship with modern efficiency," said Matthew Highfill, founder and owner of Highfill Painting. "Our new digital presence is more than just a website – it's a reflection of our core values and commitment to redefining what clients should expect from a painting contractor."

The newly launched website features an intuitive interface that showcases the company's comprehensive service offerings, including:

Residential interior and exterior painting
Commercial painting solutions
Cabinet refinishing
Deck and fence painting
Pressure washing services

A standout feature of the new digital platform is the detailed insight into Highfill Painting's unique five-step process, which demonstrates the company's systematic approach to project management and quality assurance. This transparent methodology has become a cornerstone of their success in the Richmond metropolitan area.

The website redesign coincides with the company's continued expansion across Richmond, Henrico, Midlothian, Moseley, Bon Air, Short Pump, Glen Allen, Hanover, Mechanicsville, Chesterfield, Goochland, and Powhatan. Operating from their headquarters at 1578 E Parham Rd in Henrico, the company has established itself as a leader in both residential and commercial painting services.

"When I started this company, I was determined to address the common pain points in the contracting industry – unreliable communication, tardiness, substandard work, and untidy job sites," Highfill explained. "Our new digital presence reinforces our commitment to excellence and provides clients with a comprehensive resource for their painting needs."

The website highlights the company's core values:
