Literature enthusiasts and readers seeking profound, thought-provoking stories have three new titles to explore: The Crossroads of Space and Time by Charles Nickerson and Irene Jean Nickerson, Lost Without Him by Carol Scutt, and Visitation by Art Perkins. Each book offers a unique perspective and an opportunity to dive into extraordinary narratives.

In The Crossroads of Space and Time, Charles Nickerson and Irene Jean Nickerson craft a spellbinding tale that seamlessly blends elements of science fiction and human connection. This compelling narrative takes readers on a journey through the dimensions of space and time, challenging their perceptions of reality and destiny.

A Heartfelt Journey in Lost Without Him

Carol Scutt's Lost Without Him is an emotional exploration of love, loss, and resilience. With evocative storytelling, Scutt captures the raw depth of human relationships, guiding readers through a deeply personal and universally relatable experience.

A Glimpse Beyond in Visitation

Art Perkins' Visitation delves into the realm of the extraordinary, weaving a story that balances mystery and spirituality. This intriguing novel invites readers to ponder life's biggest questions, offering an unforgettable narrative that lingers long after the final page.
