

Center for Black Equity's 25 for 25 Campaign Continues Through Giving Tuesday and Year-End

CBE's 25 for 25 Campaign honors 25 years of impact, aiming to raise $250,000 by year-end to advance health, equity, and leadership for Black LGBTQ+ communities.

WASHINGTON, DC, UNITED STATES,
November 22, 2024 /

EINPresswire.com/ -- This summer, the Center for Black Equity (CBE) launched the 25 for 25 Campaign—a bold effort to celebrate 25 years of advocating for Black LGBTQ+ communities and raise $250,000 to fund life-changing programs. As the year winds down, CBE is calling on supporters across the globe to help us finish strong through Giving Tuesday on December 3, 2024, and beyond.

Why This Matters

For 25 years, CBE has been at the forefront of the fight for equity, health, and justice for Black LGBTQ+ individuals. Our work has empowered thousands, from leading advocacy efforts to creating direct services and fostering inclusive spaces. But the work isn't done.

Every dollar raised through the 25 for 25 Campaign will directly fund:

- Health Equity: Expanding access to medications and preventive care for those who need it most.

BLACK
EQUITY

- Leadership Development: Uplifting Black LGBTQ+ leaders to drive progress in their communities.
- Mental Health Support: Providing essential resources for underserved populations.
- Advocacy for Justice: Tackling systemic inequities and creating meaningful change.

“The 25 for 25 Campaign isn’t just about celebrating where we’ve been—it’s about investing in where we’re going,” said Kenya Hutton, President/CEO of CBE. “When you give, you’re helping us build a future where Black LGBTQ+ communities thrive with dignity, freedom, and pride.”
