proudly announces the onboarding of Deepak Sachdeva as Vice President - Global Business Development. With over two decades of extensive experience in global business development across North America, Europe, the Middle East, Africa, South Asia, and APAC, Deepak brings a new level of strategic insight and leadership to Prepay Nation's operations.

Deepak's career includes leadership roles at some of the world's most respected companies, such as Nortel Networks, Utiba, Comviva, and Oberthur Technologies. He also currently serves in an advisory capacity for several ventures. His ability to navigate diverse markets, secure high-value deals, and foster sustainable business growth has been consistently demonstrated in roles spanning industries including telecommunications, digital payments, enterprise software, and cloud technologies.

Previously, as a co-founder and partner at Wynk Limited and Mobility, Deepak honed his entrepreneurial skills by developing innovative solutions and leading large-scale business ventures in the tech and payments industries. His entrepreneurial experience complements his corporate background, bridging the gap between agile start-up dynamics and structured global enterprise strategies.

"I am incredibly excited to join Prepay Nation, a company at the forefront of providing international mobile airtime transfers and value transfer solutions," said Deepak Sachdeva. "The company's mission to enable cross-border digital and mobile top-up services aligns with my passion for leveraging technology to drive connectivity and financial inclusion. I look forward to contributing to Prepay Nation's global expansion and enhancing its customer success initiatives."

"Deepak's deep expertise in global business development, combined with his entrepreneurial mindset, makes him an exceptional addition to Prepay Nation's leadership team," said Paolo Montessori, CEO of Prepay Nation. "His track record of building and managing key accounts on a global scale, coupled with his ability to lead innovative business initiatives, aligns perfectly with our growth objectives."

In his new role, Deepak will focus on expanding Prepay Nation's market presence, driving customer-centric innovation, and managing strategic accounts. His experience leading multi-million-dollar projects across continents and industries will be instrumental in enhancing customer retention and achieving long-term growth for Prepay Nation.

Deepak's prior roles include key leadership positions where he successfully led enterprise sales, presales, and business development efforts. His notable achievements include closing multi-country deals with total contract values in the millions and driving product innovations in the mobile financial services sector.

Prepay Nation is excited to welcome Deepak to the team, confident that his global perspective, business acumen, and entrepreneurial drive will significantly contribute to the company's continued success.
