We are thrilled to celebrate our city's vibrant and diverse sports culture and show that we can all do well by doing good.”

Ampcus CEO and founder Ann Ramakumaran

woman-owned, minority-owned global IT, business, technology consulting and staffing firm, is thrilled to announce its new partnership with Monumental Sports & Entertainment. This collaboration builds on Ampcus' recent 20th Anniversary celebration and commitment to supporting small and diverse businesses across industries and includes branding and integration opportunities with the NBA's Washington Wizards, NHL's Washington Capitals, WNBA's Washington Mystics, Capital One Arena, and Entertainment & Sports Arena.

"As one of the area's leading employers, we believe in contributing to the prosperity of the regions where we live, serve and operate," said Ampcus CEO and founder Ann Ramakumaran. "We are thrilled to celebrate our city's vibrant and diverse sports culture and show that we can all do well by doing good."

"Ampcus has established itself as a true industry leader, and their dedication to excellence and innovation is fully aligned with our mission at Monumental Sports & Entertainment," said Global Chief Partnerships Officer Patrick Duffy. "We look forward to a tremendous partnership together."

Fans will see Ampcus highlighted across the out-of-home digital displays at Capital One Arena and the Gallery Place/Chinatown Metro station at the corner of F Street and 7th Street NW. Viewers at home will see the Ampcus logo and messaging on digitally enhanced dashboards during Capitals games and on the courtside signage during Wizards and Mystics games. Mystics fans will also see displays on the upper bowl ribbon at Entertainment & Sports Arena.

"For 20 years, Ampcus has been part of the Greater Washington business community," said Salil

Sankaran, president of Ampcus. "As a technology company with a culture rooted in diversity, we're proud to sponsor the Wizards, Capitals and Mystics, supporting our city's incredible athletes and the Capital One Arena fan experience."

"Partnering with Ampcus brings valuable expertise that will enhance our operations and fan engagement across all our teams and venues," said Kimberly Marcus, Vice President, Diversity, Equity & Inclusion. "We are excited about the positive impact this collaboration will have on our community and the experiences we deliver to our fans."

The partnership launched on November 1 on the out-of-home digital displays at Capital One Arena. The first digitally enhanced dashboard activation will be during the November 21 Capitals game against the Colorado Avalanche.
