Shozna has long been celebrated for its cosy atmosphere and diverse menu, offering both dine-in and takeout options. The restaurant also features an elegant salon upstairs, perfect for hosting business meetings, parties, and events, making it a versatile venue for any occasion.

In a statement, Jay Ahmed, the proud owner of Shozna, expressed his gratitude and excitement: "I am thrilled to announce that Shozna Restaurant has been honoured with the prestigious Asian Curry Awards 2024, winning the title of Casual Dining Restaurant of the Year for the South East of England. This accolade marks yet another milestone in our journey, adding to the over 30 awards we have proudly received over the past two decades."

Ahmed attributes the restaurant's success to its unwavering commitment to excellence and high standards. "Our success is a testament to our unwavering commitment to excellence and the high standards we uphold. We are deeply grateful for the rave reviews and recognition from both local and national media, including esteemed publications such as Taste London, Taste Asia, and Kent News. These accolades reflect our dedication to delivering an exceptional dining experience."

The secret to Shozna's success lies in its harmonious blend of high-quality, locally sourced products and a team of well-trained, passionate staff. "Their dedication and expertise are the heart of Shozna, ensuring that every dish we serve is crafted with care and precision," Ahmed added.

Shozna remains committed to maintaining the high standards that have earned it such prestigious recognition. The restaurant extends its heartfelt thanks to its loyal customers and the community for their continued support and looks forward to welcoming guests to experience its passion for exceptional dining.
