

Acuity, Inc. Announces Promotion of Matthew Contento to Vice President of Foreign Affairs

Contento Brings 25 years of Federal Contracting Experience to Acuity's Leadership Team

RESTON, VA, UNITED STATES,
November 26, 2024 /

EINPresswire.com/ -- Acuity is pleased to announce the promotion of Matthew Contento to the position of Vice President of Foreign Affairs. Acuity's Foreign Affairs portfolio includes government entities such as the Department of State, the U.S. Agency for International Development, the United Nations, International Monetary Fund, Inter-American Development Bank, and Worldbank.

Contento has been with Acuity since February 2020, serving as a Managing Director overseeing the Foreign Affairs portfolio. In this role, he has been instrumental in expanding Acuity's footprint in diplomatic technology through managing Application Services delivery for the Department of State's Systems Integration Office.

"I am delighted to have Matt Contento join Acuity's leadership team," said Rui Garcia, Acuity founder and president. "Matt's extensive background and expertise make him an invaluable asset. He has exactly the qualities and the qualifications to drive innovation and excellence within our Foreign Affairs business unit and across Acuity."

Matthew Contento has been named Vice President, Foreign Affairs at Acuity

A graduate of James Madison University, Contento has 25 years of experience in federal contracting. He has managed large programs in federal health IT, digital transformation for aviation safety, and cloud and application development services in diplomatic technology.
