Empowering Lives Through Personalized Support

Tuktu is a platform to bring people together. We're inviting San Diego to join our community so everyone can thrive - get care for their loved ones and themselves or partner with us to give services”

Julie Glazier

Tuktu's platform is designed to meet the diverse needs of individuals and families. Imagine a senior who needs companionship and a friendly face to join them for tea and conversation, or a family juggling multiple responsibilities and in need of someone to help organize their home or prepare meals. Tuktu connects people with trusted helpers for these and other everyday needs. Whether it's safe rides to doctor's appointments, guidance on using a smartphone to stay connected with loved ones, or assistance with groceries and errands, Tuktu provides personalized solutions to make life easier. For those with special needs or chronic conditions, the platform offers tailored services to support independence and peace of mind.

Thousands of these services are already being provided every month in Canada, supported by Tuktu's AI-powered platform that ensures a perfect match between clients and helpers, reducing costs and enhancing the quality of care. With this proven success, Tuktu is now scaling to the U.S., starting with San Diego.

Tuktu is revolutionizing care by making it not only affordable but also deeply personalized. By connecting clients with vetted helpers from their local community, Tuktu ensures that support is both trustworthy and cost-effective. "Our platform is built to make care accessible and personal," said Rustam Sengupta, Founder of Tuktu. "We work with independent providers, local entrepreneurs, and home care agencies—anyone with talent and a commitment to serving their community. Tuktu fosters stronger communities while keeping costs affordable."

As part of its Thanksgiving launch, Tuktu is offering an introductory discount of $20 on your first service—just use the code TUKTU20 on the Tuktu app.

Tuktu's inclusive platform welcomes partnerships with local entrepreneurs, independent providers, and caregiving agencies who share its vision of creating meaningful, impactful support services. The company believes that by collaborating with those who have a passion for helping others, it can scale its proven model to address the pressing care challenges faced by communities across the U.S.

Julie Glazier, Tuktu's U.S. General Manager, expressed her enthusiasm for the launch. "Tuktu isn't just a service—it's a platform to bring people together. We're inviting San Diego to join us in building a community where everyone can thrive, whether by using the app, becoming a helper, or partnering with us to expand our reach."
