The Power of Combining Web Design with SEO
Canty Digital's web design services are built on the understanding that websites must be more than just visually appealing—they must be functional, fast, and optimised for search engines. Since they combine creative design with technical SEO strategies like keyword research, on-page optimisation, and mobile responsiveness, Canty Digital builds and designs websites that do more than impress. These websites rank well on search engines like

Google, attracting visitors that can easily be converted into customers thanks to functional and impactful web design.

"Web design and SEO go hand-in-hand," said Matt Canty, Founder of Canty Digital. "We've spent over 10 years perfecting our approach to ensure our clients get more than a beautiful website—they get a website that ranks high on search engines and drives real business results."

Why Canty Digital's Web Design Services Stand Out

Following the best practices for SEO implementation from the start of every project, Canty Digital's team provides outstanding web design services in Wollongong.

SEO-Driven Web Design: Every website built by Canty Digital is optimised for search engines from the ground up. By incorporating technical SEO elements such as mobile responsiveness & proper indexing, they create striking websites that are easily discoverable online.

Keyword Integration: With extensive keyword research and on-page optimisation, Canty Digital ensures each website answers clients' potential queries online and matches high-traffic keywords for their client's industries.

Local SEO Focus: Businesses targeting local customers in Wollongong can benefit most from Canty Digital's expertise. Combining local SEO strategies with beautiful web design, their team helps drive targeted traffic to their client's doors.

Custom Web Design: Canty Digital steer clear of overused templates. Instead, they create custom-designed websites tailored to each client's brand identity, messaging and business goals. Whether it's for dental services, a fashion boutique, a real estate company or a builder they can build websites that hit the mark.

Special Offer: $99 Web Design Service for Wollongong Businesses

As part of their commitment to supporting local businesses, Canty Digital offers small local businesses in Wollongong a single-page website for just $99. This special offer is designed to help local companies establish a professional online presence at an affordable price. In exchange for this discounted service, all they ask is an online review of their services.

"We're excited to help small businesses in Wollongong get online with a beautifully designed, SEO-friendly website," said Matt Canty. "This offer gives local businesses an affordable way to boost their online presence while we continue to expand our portfolio with real-world results."
