Finalrentals, a rapidly expanding global car rental network, is thrilled to announce its latest milestone: entering the Slovakian and Austrian markets. This strategic expansion strengthens its presence in Central Europe, offering travellers seamless access to trusted car rental services at Bratislava International Airport and Vienna International Airport.

To drive this venture, Finalrentals has partnered with Andrej Nemec, a leading figure in the regional mobility industry. Nemec's expertise will ensure the company's innovative approach resonates with the diverse needs of travellers in these bustling European hubs.

Dubbed the Uber of car rentals, Finalrentals is an online platform that connects customers with local car rental companies across the world.

This dual-country expansion marks a pivotal moment in Finalrentals' mission to deliver high-quality, digitally driven car rental solutions to local and international customers. Slovakia and Austria's central position in Europe, paired with their flourishing tourism industries, makes them ideal markets for the company's advanced car rental offerings.

Ammar Akhtar, Founder and CEO of Finalrentals, emphasised the importance of this move: "With Vienna and Bratislava serving as major gateways to Central Europe, this expansion is a key step in our journey to becoming the world's leading car rental network. These cities are vibrant centers of history, culture, and connectivity, attracting both leisure and business travellers. Partnering with Andrej Nemec empowers us to deliver an unparalleled car rental experience to those exploring these remarkable destinations.”

Andrej Nemec, now the franchisee for Slovakia and Austria, brings invaluable local knowledge and operational expertise to this partnership. His deep understanding of regional market dynamics will enable Finalrentals to thrive in these competitive territories.

Nemec shared his enthusiasm for the collaboration: “Finalrentals’ innovative and customer-focused approach perfectly aligns with the needs of travellers in Slovakia and Austria. As tourism continues to grow and airports like Vienna and Bratislava play critical roles in connecting Europe, this partnership is poised to transform the car rental experience. I am excited to introduce the trusted Finalrentals brand to these dynamic and evolving markets.”

The partnership comes amid significant growth in the Central European car rental market, driven by surging travel demand and digital transformation in the mobility sector. With Slovakia and Austria set to benefit from increased tourism and business travel, Finalrentals is ideally positioned to capture a substantial share of this expanding market.

About Finalrentals

Finalrentals is taking car rentals into the future. By leveraging innovative proprietary technology, Finalrentals connects thousands of customers with hundreds of local car rental businesses worldwide, enabling them to seamlessly search for and hire cars through its platform. Founded by Ammar Akhtar in 2019, Finalrentals is a UK-based fintech company with headquarters in the UK. Its platform gives customers greater choice than traditional vehicle hire companies and provides independent car rental businesses with more online visibility, ensuring that local communities benefit directly from every booking.
