We're thrilled to make our grand opening meaningful by supporting children impacted by Helene during the holiday season.”

Angelique Gentry

Storage of Lake Norman is excited to announce its grand opening celebration on Friday, December 6th, from 11:30 AM to 1:30 PM. In the spirit of giving back, the event will also feature a toy drive to support children in need throughout Western North Carolina. The company is proud to partner with the Great Toy Convoy and the Mooresville Fire Department to bring the community together for an afternoon of holiday cheer and family-friendly fun.

The celebration will include a range of exciting activities, such as a fire truck display courtesy of the Mooresville Fire Department, facility tours, and complimentary refreshments. As a special incentive, attendees who donate an unwrapped toy to the toy drive will be entered into a drawing, with prizes including a brand-new flatscreen TV.

“We're thrilled to make our grand opening meaningful by supporting children impacted by Helene during the holiday season,” said Angelique Gentry, Facility Manager at Great American Self Storage of Lake Norman. “By partnering with the Great Toy Convoy, we're turning our celebration into an opportunity to give back.”

The Great Toy Convoy, a local organization dedicated to collecting and distributing toys to children across Western North Carolina, will be on-site to gather donations. All toys collected during the event will be delivered to children in need throughout the WNC, ensuring that families in the community experience the joy of the holiday season.

The Mooresville Fire Department will also bring a fire truck, offering a fun and educational experience for families and children of all ages.
