

Kieren-Paul Brown's Provocative New Novel "N-Word" Set to Release December 16, 2024

A daring exploration of race, identity, and redemption unfolds in Brown's latest, "N-Word," a genre-bending novel that challenges societal assumptions.

BIRMINGHAM, ENGLAND, UNITED KINGDOM, November 25, 2024 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Kieren-Paul Brown, known for his fearless storytelling and insightful perspectives, returns with his latest novel, "N-Word," scheduled for release on December 16, 2024. "N-Word" promises to captivate and provoke readers with its unique storyline, following the journey of Antonia, an 85-year-old white woman reincarnated into the body of Kara, a young Black social media influencer.

Through this transformative experience, Brown navigates the intricate themes of racial identity, spiritual connection, and personal redemption in an American landscape that is as divided as it is complex.

"N-Word" is a powerful exploration that transcends traditional genres, blending elements of thriller, historical fiction, and romance. Set against a backdrop that spans 1950s Civil Rights America and today's cultural divides, Brown's novel examines the impact of race on personal identity and pushes readers to confront deeply ingrained societal assumptions.
