This partnership introduces Cynopsis Solutions' advanced KYC/KYB, AML, and CFT compliance technology alongside GRC Solutions' expert-led training programmes, offering businesses the tools and skills needed to enhance AML compliance.

As the regulatory landscape becomes more complex, businesses require more than just compliance tools. They need well-trained teams who can effectively navigate evolving regulations. Through this partnership, GRC Solutions and Cynopsis Solutions are introducing their complementary offerings to help businesses meet compliance standards and stay ahead of industry changes.

Julian Fenwick, CEO of GRC Solutions, said, "We're thrilled to partner with Cynopsis Solutions to offer a comprehensive solution for AML compliance. By combining our expertise in regulatory training with their advanced technology, we're empowering businesses to navigate the complex regulatory landscape with confidence."

Organisations in sectors like Finance, FinTech, Real Estate, and Insurance, which face increasing pressure to meet stringent KYC and AML compliance requirements, will benefit from this collaboration. By leveraging Cynopsis Solutions' technology and GRC Solutions' training, businesses can strengthen their compliance frameworks and ensure their teams are equipped to handle regulatory challenges.

Chionh Chye Kit, CEO and Co-Founder of Cynopsis Solutions, commented, "We strongly believe that combatting financial crime requires a holistic approach involving strong proactive preventive controls and timely detective controls. Training forms a huge part of the preventive control every regulated entity should adopt. Partnering with GRC Solutions allows us to offer a more comprehensive solution to our clients that is very complementary to Cynopsis' products."

The partnership between GRC Solutions and Cynopsis Solutions marks a significant step toward empowering businesses to proactively address AML compliance. By offering access to both specialised tools and training, both companies are helping organisations cultivate a future-ready workforce capable of tackling evolving regulatory demands with confidence.
