eMission Software is a forward-thinking company dedicated to helping businesses and organizations reduce their environmental impact through data-driven solutions. Specializing in carbon management and sustainability analytics, eMission Software leverages the power of technology to provide businesses with actionable insights and strategies to address risks related to the economics surrounding climate change. With the rapid evolution of the climate tech sector, the formation of a strong advisory board was a crucial step in ensuring that eMission Software remains at the forefront of industry advancements, offering cutting-edge tools and expertise to its growing customer base.

The eMission Software Advisory Board consists of a carefully selected group of individuals who bring unique skills and insights that will play a pivotal role in shaping the company's future. These leaders represent a broad spectrum of industries, from clean tech and environmental sustainability to venture capital and corporate strategy. Their collective experience and knowledge will be invaluable as eMission Software continues to expand its reach and impact.

“We are thrilled to announce the formation of our Board of Advisors,” said Richard Hepp, CEO and Co-Founder of eMission Software. “Each of our advisors brings a wealth of knowledge and expertise in key areas that will be critical to eMission Software’s continued growth and success. With their strategic guidance, we are confident that we will be able to further enhance our product offerings, expand our reach, and help our customers make a lasting, positive impact on the environment. Together, we will work to create a more sustainable future through the power of technology and innovation.”

As eMission Software continues to evolve, the company remains steadfast in its commitment to delivering innovative software solutions that help businesses navigate the complexities of sustainability. The Board of Advisors will play an instrumental role in guiding the company’s strategic direction, ensuring it remains a leader in the rapidly growing climate tech space.
