

The Orient of JingYue by Tim Tan and Fiona Liu Wins Bronze in A' Interior Design Awards

Innovative Residential House Design by Tim Tan and Fiona Liu Receives International Recognition for Excellence in Interior Design

COMO, CO, ITALY, November 26, 2024 /EINPresswire.com/ -- The A' Design Award, a highly respected international design competition, has announced that The Orient of JingYue, a residential house designed by Tim Tan and Fiona Liu, has been awarded the prestigious Bronze A' Design Award in the Interior Space and Exhibition Design category. This award recognizes the exceptional creativity, innovation, and functionality of The Orient of JingYue, positioning it as a notable achievement within the interior design industry.

The Orient of JingYue

The Orient of JingYue stands out for its seamless integration of traditional Chinese Wuyue culture with modern design techniques, creating a space that pays homage to the local heritage while incorporating elements of the ancient canal commercial market and textile crafts. This innovative approach aligns with current trends in the interior design industry, which seek to blend cultural influences with contemporary aesthetics and functionality.

The design team behind The Orient of JingYue has skillfully combined classical elements such as walnut and marble with bronze metal accents to create a luxurious and harmonious living space. The attention to detail and the thoughtful use of materials and color schemes result in an interior that exudes both artistic flair and a strong sense of Oriental aesthetics. The design's focus on functionality and ergonomics ensures that it not only looks stunning but also enhances the quality of life for its occupants.

Winning the Bronze A' Design Award is a significant milestone for Tim Tan and Fiona Liu, as it validates their dedication to pushing the boundaries of interior design while remaining grounded in cultural heritage. This recognition is expected to inspire the team to continue exploring innovative design solutions that combine traditional influences with modern techniques, ultimately contributing to the advancement of the interior design industry as a whole.
