

READ Academy Receives WASC Accreditation

Sacramento's leading school for students with dyslexia reaches milestone with prestigious Western Association of Schools and Colleges accreditation.

SACRAMENTO, CA, UNITED STATES,
November 26, 2024 /

EINPresswire.com/ -- READ Academy, Sacramento County's leading school for students with dyslexia and specialized learning needs, proudly announces its accreditation status granted by the Accrediting Commission for Schools, Western Association of Schools and Colleges (WASC). This prestigious milestone was achieved after the school completed an extensive self-study report and hosted an initial visit by a team of experienced educators to evaluate its program against WASC's rigorous criteria for student learning and well-being.

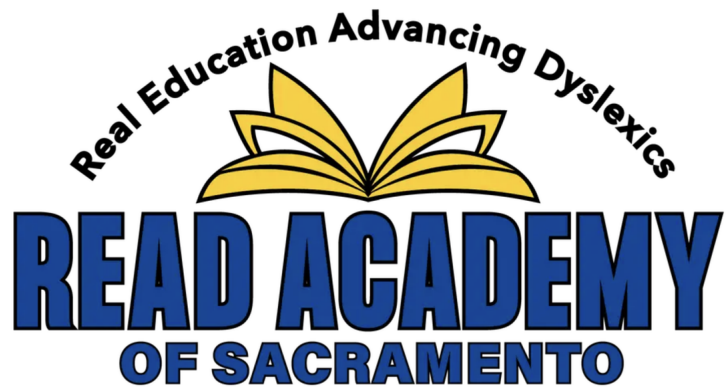

“

This accreditation affirms our mission to provide an inclusive, high-quality educational environment where students thrive academically and emotionally.”

Leah Skinner, M.Ed., Dyslexia Specialist and Administrator

students thrive academically and emotionally. It's a testament to the hard work of our staff, students, and families.”

The visiting committee noted READ Academy's dedication to its students, highlighting the school's nurturing environment and its strategic use of evidence-based methodologies to meet the needs of diverse learners. They were particularly impressed by the passion of the educators

READ Academy logo showcasing the mission of advancing education for students with dyslexia in Sacramento.

The visiting committee's report highlighted READ Academy's exceptional commitment to individualized education and its innovative approaches to supporting students with dyslexia. The review also identified areas for growth, paving the way for the school's ongoing dedication to continuous improvement.

Leah Skinner, M.Ed., Dyslexia Specialist and Administrator at READ Academy, expressed her enthusiasm:

"This accreditation affirms our mission to provide an inclusive, high-quality educational environment where and the supportive community spirit that permeates every aspect of the school.

WASC accreditation underscores the integrity of READ Academy's programs and validates its commitment to student success. It assures families that the school's educational goals align with best practices and that its programs are consistently refined for optimal impact.

As part of the WASC accreditation cycle, READ Academy will continue its self-study process every five to six years, hosting follow-up visits and engaging stakeholders to implement and monitor its schoolwide action plan.

About WASC:

The Accrediting Commission for Schools, Western Association of Schools and Colleges (WASC), is a globally recognized accrediting body and one of six regional accrediting agencies in the United States. Working closely with the Office of Overseas Schools under the U.S. Department of State, WASC supports schools worldwide, particularly in California, Hawaii, Guam, and regions across Asia, the Pacific, the Middle East, Africa, and Europe. To learn more, please visit www.acswasc.org.

Leah Skinner, M.Ed
READ Academy
+1 (916) 258-2080
email us here

Fully Accredited by

READ Academy proudly announces its accreditation by WASC, reflecting excellence in education and a commitment to student success.

This press release can be viewed online at: <https://www.einpresswire.com/article/764000086>

EIN Presswire's priority is source transparency. We do not allow opaque clients, and our editors try to be careful about weeding out false and misleading content. As a user, if you see something we have missed, please do bring it to our attention. Your help is welcome. EIN Presswire, Everyone's Internet News Presswire™, tries to define some of the boundaries that are reasonable in today's world. Please see our Editorial Guidelines for more information.

© 1995-2024 Newsmatics Inc. All Right Reserved.