

Lunar Division Brings Holiday Cheer with Toy Drive Concert for TEEM

Join Lunar Division, Tadpole & Gonzo LeBronzo on Dec. 14th for a Toy Drive Concert supporting TEEM. Music & giving unite to brighten kids' holidays!

OKLAHOMA, OK, UNITED STATES, November 27, 2024 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Oklahoma City's alternative rock band Lunar Division is bringing music and community spirit together this holiday season with a Toy Drive Concert on Saturday, December 14th at the 51st St. Speakeasy. The event, which features performances by Lunar Division, Tadpole, and Gonzo LeBronzo, supports the TEEM Holiday Toy Drive. This initiative benefits children whose parents are justice-involved, providing them with toys and holiday cheer during what can often be a challenging time.

Concertgoers have two ways to participate: donate an unwrapped toy or contribute $5 at the door. Every dollar and toy collected will directly support TEEM (The Education and Employment Ministry). This nonprofit organization is dedicated to empowering individuals impacted by the justice system, offering them resources and support to create brighter futures. The Holiday Toy Drive is one of TEEM's many efforts to uplift local families and ensure children feel the joy and generosity of the season.

The Toy Drive Concert promises an unforgettable night of live music from some of Oklahoma City's most talented bands. Lunar Division, known for their dynamic alternative rock sound and heartfelt lyrics, will headline the event. Fans can expect an energy-filled performance that combines powerful melodies with an emotional connection to the audience. Joining them are Tadpole, whose raw energy and infectious style make them a crowd favorite, and Gonzo LeBronzo, a band celebrated for their eclectic and experimental approach to music. Together, these three bands are set to deliver a night that blends entertainment with a meaningful cause.

Rock the Night, Brighten a Child's Holiday – Join Lunar Division's Toy Drive Concert on December 14th!

The event will take place at the 51st St. Speakeasy, located at 1114 NW 51st St, OKC, OK 73118. Doors open at 8pm, and the venue provides a cozy and inviting space for music lovers to enjoy the performances while supporting a worthy cause. The combination of great music, a warm atmosphere, and an important mission makes this event a must-attend for the holiday season.

TEEM's Holiday Toy Drive is a vital initiative that helps bring joy to children who might otherwise feel left out during the holidays. Many of these children face unique challenges, and this effort ensures they receive gifts that remind them they are valued and supported by their community. Beyond the toys, the drive represents hope, kindness, and the power of coming together to uplift those in need.

For families affected by the justice system, the holidays can be especially difficult. The financial strain, combined with emotional challenges, often leaves little room for celebrations. By

Even if you can't attend the concert, there are still ways to help. Donations can be made directly to TEEM through their website at <https://www.teem.org/toy-drive>. Every contribution, whether big or small, adds up to create a positive impact for local families.

The Toy Drive Concert is not just a night of great music; it's an opportunity for the Oklahoma City community to come together for a shared purpose. Events like this highlight the generosity and compassion that make the city a special place to live. By turning out for the concert, you're supporting local musicians, a vital nonprofit, and, most importantly, children in need.

Mark your calendar for Saturday, December 14th, and head to the 51st St. Speakeasy to experience an evening filled with music, giving, and community spirit. Together, Lunar Division, Tadpole, and Gonzo LeBronzo aim to make this holiday season brighter for children and families who need it most.
