Panos Bletsos, Greg Frank, Bob Vetrone Jr., and Taiye T. Taiwo. These seasoned sports media experts bring with them a wealth of experience across various facets of the industry, including broadcasting, journalism, statistical analysis, and digital content creation.

Joining them are established Rant Sports veterans, including Sean Miller, Mark Eckel (author of four books and long-time NFL writer), Ben Mattison, and Jim Williams, a seven-time Emmy Award-winning broadcaster. Together, this dynamic group will work to deliver in-depth, insightful, and engaging sports content to Rant Sports' growing audience.

“We are thrilled to welcome Panos, Greg, Bob, and Taiye to the Rant Sports family,” Sean Miller, Editor in Chief at Rant Sports, said. “Each of them brings a unique set of skills and a fresh perspective to our team. Their diverse backgrounds—ranging from international football commentary to in-depth statistical analysis—will only enhance our ability to offer fans the most comprehensive sports coverage available. We’re looking forward to seeing how their contributions will help take Rant Sports to new heights.”

Meet the New Additions:

Panos Bletsos – With 28 years of experience across broadcast, print, and online media, Panos is a seasoned sports journalist, TV anchor, and football (soccer) commentator at ERT, the Hellenic Broadcasting Corporation. His career has taken him to major international sporting events, including the UEFA Euros (2012, 2024), UEFA Champions League, five Summer Olympics, and the 2006 Winter Olympics. Specializing in international football, Panos has contributed to several respected outlets, including Goal.com, InsideWorldFootball.com, and Al Jazeera English. In addition to his extensive journalism background, he holds a degree in Sports Journalism, is a certified e-journalist, and has a background in Electromechanical Engineering. Panos is passionate about delivering engaging, informative, and entertaining content to sports fans worldwide.

Greg Frank – A passionate college basketball aficionado, Greg Frank is a dynamic sports journalist with a keen eye for storytelling. A 2017 graduate of Temple University's journalism program, Greg has honed his craft across various platforms, including sports radio and freelance writing. He brings expert analysis and sharp insights to Rant Sports, focusing on NCAA basketball coverage, game strategies, player profiles, and the latest action from the college basketball world. Known for his engaging and informative writing, Greg's work is rooted in his genuine love for the game. He can be followed on Twitter at @g_frank6.

Bob Vetrone Jr. – A seasoned sports media professional, Bob Vetrone Jr. brings decades of experience in sports statistics and editorial writing. Having worked at notable organizations such as the Philadelphia Daily News and Philadelphia Bulletin, Bob has collaborated with sports broadcasters like CBS Sports and Comcast SportsNet. His deep knowledge of sports analytics and his ability to weave sharp statistical insights into compelling narratives have made him a trusted voice in the sports community. In addition to his editorial expertise, Bob has a long-standing connection to the Philadelphia sports scene, contributing significantly to its rich storytelling tradition. Follow Bob on X (formerly Twitter) at @BoopStats.

Taiye T. Taiwo – With a global perspective on sports journalism, Taiye T. Taiwo brings a wealth of experience covering sports across continents, with a particular focus on football (soccer), basketball, and emerging sports trends. Taiye's ability to blend cultural insights with detailed sports reporting has earned him a reputation as a go-to journalist for international sports coverage. His versatile writing, combined with an in-depth understanding of the global sports landscape, will help expand Rant Sports' coverage of international sporting events, as well as EuroLeague Basketball and European football.

Industry Veterans

Rant Sports is also proud to continue working with a team of highly experienced sports journalists and broadcasters, including:

Sean Miller – A skilled sports writer with extensive experience in both digital and print journalism, Sean continues to provide expert commentary and analysis on a variety of sports topics.

Mark Eckel – The author of four books and a long-time NFL writer, Mark brings decades of expertise in covering the National Football League. His deep understanding of football strategies and player dynamics makes him a key contributor to Rant Sports' NFL coverage.

Ben Mattison – A respected sports journalist, Ben contributes insightful analysis and in-depth features across multiple sports, offering readers thoughtful commentary on current events and trends.

Jim Williams – A seven-time Emmy Award-winning broadcaster, Jim brings a wealth of experience in television and radio sports coverage, enhancing Rant Sports' multimedia content offerings.

Looking Ahead

With these exciting new additions to the team, Rant Sports is poised to expand its coverage and deliver even more in-depth analysis, exclusive features, and timely updates on the world of sports. Fans can look forward to fresh insights, comprehensive game breakdowns, and engaging storytelling across a wide array of sports, including football, basketball, college sports, and more.
