

AINOTE Air 2 Smart Notebook Now Available with Black Friday Discounts

iFLYTEK's AINOTE Air 2 smart notebook, with real-time voice-to-text, handwriting conversion, and cloud sync, gets a 20% Black Friday discount, now $439.

WASHINGTON, DC, UNITED STATES, November 28, 2024 /EINPresswire.com/ -- iFLYTEK, a leading provider of artificial intelligence and speech technology solutions, is offering a Black Friday promotion for its AINOTE Air 2 smart notebook. Consumers can purchase the AINOTE Air 2 for $439, a 20% discount from its original price of $549, now through December 2nd.

The AINOTE Air 2 is designed to enhance productivity and streamline workflows for professionals, students, and anyone who relies on efficient note-taking. It combines the familiarity of a traditional notepad with the power of advanced AI technology.

Key Features and Benefits:

- Effortless Note-Taking and Transcription: The AINOTE Air 2 offers real-time voice-to-text transcription with multi-user mode, enabling accurate capture of meetings, lectures, and discussions. The device supports multiple languages and can differentiate between speakers, ensuring clear and organized records. This feature allows users to focus on active listening and participation rather than manual note-taking.
- Handwriting Recognition and Digitization: Users can write naturally on the AINOTE Air 2 with a dedicated stylus. The device seamlessly converts handwritten notes and diagrams into searchable digital text, facilitating easy editing, sharing, and integration with other documents.

Experience the power of AI with the iFLYTEK AINOTE Air 2. This smart notebook combines a paper-like writing experience with advanced voice-to-text capabilities, handwriting recognition, and seamless cloud sync.

- Integrated Audio Recording and Synchronization: The AINOTE Air 2 allows users to record audio in conjunction with their handwritten notes. This feature creates a comprehensive record of meetings, lectures, or brainstorming sessions, enabling users to revisit the content in a more immersive way.

- Enhanced Organization and Productivity: The AINOTE Air 2 offers a suite of organizational tools, including calendar integration, task management features, and the ability to generate reports. These features help users manage their schedules, keep track of deadlines, and maintain a streamlined workflow.

- Seamless Cloud Integration and Accessibility: The AINOTE Air 2 syncs with cloud services, providing users with access to their notes and documents from any device. This ensures that important information is always available, regardless of location.

- Built-in Document Scanner: The integrated document scanner enables users to digitize paper documents quickly and easily. This feature helps reduce clutter and simplifies document management.

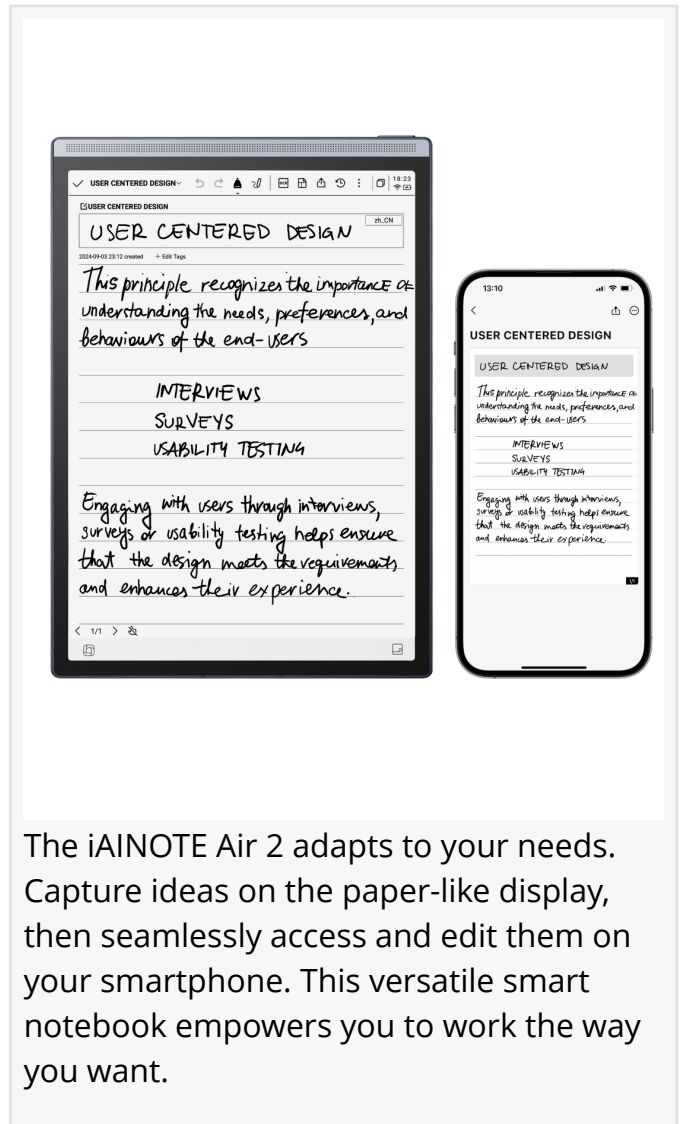

From classroom to boardroom, the iFLYTEK AINOTE Air 2 is your ultimate note-taking companion. This compact device boasts powerful voice-to-text capabilities, handwriting recognition, and a long-lasting battery to keep you going all day.

The AINOTE Air 2 Black Friday offer is available through December 2nd on iFLYTEK's official website and Amazon.
