Celebrating the Launch of Groflex 2025 with Powerful New CRM Features

Groflex has announced the release of Groflex 2025, a revolutionary update to its business software suite. This new version introduces advanced CRM capabilities, complementing an already comprehensive array of tools for finance, manufacturing, invoicing, and point-of-sale management. To celebrate, Groflex is rolling out an extraordinary Global Black Friday Promotion: a $1 subscription per organization, available in 27 countries. This initiative underscores Groflex’s commitment to making enterprise resource planning (ERP) software both accessible and affordable for businesses of all sizes.

With Groflex 2025, organizations can seamlessly automate and digitize their workflows, unlocking time and resources to focus on growth and customer satisfaction. Offered at a fraction of the cost of legacy ERP solutions—99% less—Groflex provides a powerful all-in-one platform featuring:

- Accounting
- Invoicing
- Point-of-Sale
- Inventory Management
- Customer Relationship Management (CRM)

□ Business Intelligence and Analytics

The platform's AI-powered features drive operational efficiency by predicting cash flow trends, identifying new customer opportunities, ensuring timely order fulfillment, and more.

"Groflex was built on the belief that every organization deserves access to exceptional business software," said Amit Mundra, CEO of Groflex. "Our $1 Black Friday promotion exemplifies this mission. With the addition of CRM, businesses can unlock new levels of efficiency and scalability like never before."

This limited-time promotion is available in 27 countries, with localized pricing ensuring a similar level of discount in every region. No promo codes are necessary—new customers automatically receive the discounted rate when setting up their accounts at groflexerp.com. The promotion runs through January 1, 2025.
