environment that suits individual goals and circumstances is a key attraction of studying Japanese at AOJ Language School, enabling continuous learning and steady achievement of objectives.

The "Private Japanese Lesson" offers 45 minutes of personalized, one-on-one instruction conducted by specialized Japanese language teachers. These lessons are designed to accommodate learners of all levels—from beginners to advanced—and can be tailored to meet specific learning goals or areas of interest.

With the current trend of a weaker yen making Japan an increasingly popular travel destination, there is a growing demand for casual Japanese language learning. Additionally, having a Japanese learner nearby often sparks interest in others to start learning as well. To convey the appeal of Japanese language learning easily, we are launching the "Friend and Family Referral Program".

Referrers must be current students who are enrolled in our group or private lessons, or alumni who have previously attended AOJ Language School. When applying, it is necessary to provide the referrer's student ID number and name. Please feel free to contact them and take advantage of this opportunity to start learning Japanese affordably.
