

"ABLE" Film Achieves $250K Milestone on the Path to Raising $2 Million to Film Powerful Story of Down Syndrome Inclusion

Milestone Marks Significant Progress in Funding the Inspirational Film Advocating for Inclusion and Representation.

ATLANTA, GEORGIA, December 2, 2024

/EINPresswire.com/ -- With an overwhelming response from supporters around the world, "ABLE" has reached the $250,000 mark, showcasing the widespread enthusiasm for this powerful story. Written and directed by Kelly Collins Lintz and inspired by real-life advocates, "ABLE" follows the emotional journey of Amy Kosmalski, a mother determined to ensure her daughter with Down syndrome, Kayla, redefines what's possible. The film explores Amy's resilience as she overcomes societal and institutional barriers to advocate for her daughter's future.

This milestone brings "ABLE" one step closer to its $2 million goal, which will support production costs, accessibility, and advocacy outreach. The campaign offers unique perks at every donor level, from exclusive behind-the-scenes content and signed merchandise to VIP set visits, and even credits in the film.

"ABLE" is more than a film; it's a

Able Movie

Writer/Director Kelly Collins Lintz

movement for change in how we perceive inclusion, acceptance, and competence for individuals with Down syndrome. For more information and to become an "ABLE Ally", visit <https://www.ablemovie.com/>

About "ABLE": "ABLE" is a feature film directed by Kelly Collins Lintz, telling the story of a mother's commitment to full inclusion for her daughter with Down syndrome. The film's goal is to reshape representation in media and empower communities to embrace inclusion. The campaign marks a powerful step toward more inclusive storytelling.

Amanda Abelita

Abelita PR

email us here

+1 614-354-3322

Kayla Kosmalski-Miss Delaware Teen Use 2024

This press release can be viewed online at: <https://www.einpresswire.com/article/765551246>

EIN Presswire's priority is source transparency. We do not allow opaque clients, and our editors try to be careful about weeding out false and misleading content. As a user, if you see something we have missed, please do bring it to our attention. Your help is welcome. EIN Presswire, Everyone's Internet News Presswire™, tries to define some of the boundaries that are reasonable in today's world. Please see our Editorial Guidelines for more information.

© 1995-2024 Newsmatics Inc. All Right Reserved.