Autonomize AI*

Dr. Gandhi's career spans over two decades, during which he has led multidisciplinary teams to solve complex challenges in health systems, care delivery, and public health. He has a proven track record in driving innovation across primary care, digital health, and health security.

Formerly as the Chief Community Health Officer at Walmart, Dr. Gandhi has worked extensively to improve health outcomes for vulnerable populations, including rural and urban Medicaid, underinsured, and uninsured communities. His work reflects a deep commitment to improving healthcare access and outcomes for underserved communities, a focus that aligns seamlessly with Autonomize AI's mission of using AI to lower the cost of care and improve access to care.

His exceptional career also includes serving as Chief Medical Officer at the U.S. Department of Homeland Security, where he led teams in response to multiple national health security challenges and served on the President's COVID-19 Health Equity Task Force. A Fulbright Scholar, National Health Service Corps Scholar, and Presidential Leadership Scholar, Dr. Gandhi's academic and public service achievements have earned him numerous accolades, including the Secretary's Exceptional Service Gold Medal.

"We are thrilled to welcome Dr. Pritesh Gandhi to our Medical Advisory Board," said Ganesh

Padmanabhan, CEO of Autonomize AI. "Pritesh's extensive experience across private, public, and nonprofit healthcare sectors uniquely positions him to help Autonomize AI advance our mission of leveraging AI to enhance care quality, reduce administrative burden, and improve patient outcomes. His deep understanding of health systems innovation and value-based care will be instrumental in shaping our future."

Dr. Gandhi's addition comes at a pivotal moment as Autonomize AI continues to drive innovation at the intersection of healthcare and AI. "I am honored to join the Medical Advisory Board at Autonomize AI and collaborate with such a forward-thinking organization," said Dr. Pritesh Gandhi. "Autonomize AI's commitment to leveraging AI for real-world impact aligns with my passion for improving access and quality of care for underserved populations. I look forward to contributing to their vision of a transformed healthcare landscape."
