

H2Ocean's Sea Salt based Natural Products Are Proudly Made in the USA, From Start to Finish Without Outsourcing

H2Ocean stands as a prominent exemplar of American innovation, dedicated to developing natural sea salt based skin products that prioritize safety and quality.

STUART, FL, UNITED STATES, March 3, 2025 /EINPresswire.com/ -- H2Ocean, a pioneer in sea salt based natural healthcare products, reaffirms its commitment to American manufacturing by proudly creating and packaging 100% of its products in the United States. With a mission rooted in quality, sustainability, and giving back, H2Ocean has become a trusted leader in the industry, delivering innovative solutions while supporting local economies and advancing community education.

At H2Ocean, supporting local economies is part of our DNA. By manufacturing entirely in the USA, we're not just creating products—we're creating opportunities for American workers and their families.”

Eddie Kolos, CEO

The Discovery of Sea Salt-Based Natural Products- H2Ocean was founded on the belief that the ocean holds powerful healing properties that can revolutionize the way we care for our skin, hair, and oral health. During its early years, the company's research team explored natural alternatives to traditional chemical-based products and discovered the unparalleled benefits of sea salt, particularly Red Sea Salt, which is rich in 82 essential minerals. This breakthrough led to the development of H2Ocean's signature line of natural products, harnessing the ocean's restorative elements to promote faster healing, reduce inflammation, and provide hydration. Today, H2Ocean continues to innovate, delivering effective solutions inspired by nature while avoiding harsh chemicals, alcohol, and artificial additives.

H2Ocean All-American Excellence in Manufacturing Quality: H2Ocean's products are manufactured entirely in the USA, ensuring unparalleled quality control and creating jobs that support American workers. From sourcing natural ingredients to packaging and distribution, every step of the process is handled domestically without outsourcing. This commitment underscores the company's dedication to providing superior products while bolstering the local economy. H2Ocean's product lines include:

1. Oral Care: Healing Rinse Mouthwash and sprays designed for sensitive mouths, post-surgical care, and cancer patients experiencing oral side effects.
2. First Aid: Wound sprays with natural antibacterial agents to accelerate healing and reduce scarring.
3. Hair Care: Nutrient-rich hair and scalp sprays that support post-hair transplantation recovery and promote hydration.
4. Nasal Care: Soothing sprays to alleviate dryness, congestion, and respiratory irritation naturally.
5. Skin Care: All natural tattoo aftercare.
6. Piercing Aftercare: H2Ocean Piercing Aftercare, developed in 2001, is the world's first body piercing aftercare solution..

Entrepreneurship and Leadership Recognition- H2Ocean's Founder and CEO, Eddie Kolos, was recently honored with the prestigious 2023 Martin County Entrepreneur of the Year Award for his exceptional leadership in creating an innovative, sustainable business model. Eddie's visionary approach has not only redefined the sea salt based natural skincare industry but also fostered initiatives that contribute to ocean conservation and community well-being. Our "Made in the USA" promise is more than a label—it's a testament to our belief in American resources and innovation," said Eddie Kolos, CEO of H2Ocean. He mentioned, "Every product reflects our commitment to supporting American economy. This commitment ensures quality at every step while giving back to the local communities that support us."
