TrackTune is excited to partner with 5 Flags Speedway and its owner and general manager, Tim Bryant, to elevate the fan experience for this iconic event. "5 Flags Speedway, and the Snowball Derby has always been about providing fans with the ultimate race day experience. TrackTune transforms how our fans experience race day," says Tim Bryant, General Manager of Five Flags Speedway. "The crystal-clear announcer audio, even above the roar of engines, ensures fans don't miss a moment of the action. For an event like the Snowball Derby, that's invaluable."

TrackTune invites all attendees to bring their earphones or headphones to connect with their phones and download the free TrackTune app for unparalleled audio clarity. Fans will be able to follow every lap, every pass, and every thrilling moment in real-time, without missing a word of the announcer's commentary.

TrackTune is proud to be part of this legendary event, with its patent-pending technology already transforming the fan experience at racetracks nationwide. From coast to coast, tracks have embraced TrackTune as their go-to solution for enhancing fan engagement.

The Bezanson family, TrackTune's owners, continue to carry forward the mission of improving the racing experience for fans and tracks alike. Anissa Bezanson, TrackTune's CEO, remarked,

"The Snowball Derby is representative of the best in motorsports, and partnering with 5 Flags Speedway is a perfect fit for TrackTune. We're here to make race day memorable and immersive for fans, racers, and tracks everywhere."

To further engage fans, TrackTune will run ads on Flo Racing, inviting attendees to experience the race like never before. The app ensures that fans at the Snowball Derby will feel every turn, every lap, and every exhilarating moment.

Fans attending the PRI Trade Show in Indianapolis from Dec 12-14 can also visit TrackTune at Booth #338 to learn more about its cutting-edge technology and exciting new features.
