ABOTA membership is by invitation only and reserved for trial attorneys who have demonstrated elite skill and integrity, with eligibility requirements that include a minimum of ten civil jury trials and at least five years of active trial experience. ABOTA's mission is to elevate the standards of integrity, honor, and civility in the legal profession and to preserve the Seventh Amendment right to a jury trial.

Moye's induction into ABOTA signifies a profound benefit for his clients. As a member of this highly selective organization, Moye's clients gain the advantage of working with an attorney recognized among the nation's elite trial lawyers. Membership reflects his ability to navigate even the most complex legal challenges while adhering to the highest standards of ethical and professional conduct.

With over 20 years of experience in the courtroom, Moye has built a reputation as a skilled trial lawyer and a fierce advocate for justice. His career includes representing clients in catastrophic personal injury cases, oilfield and industrial workplace accidents, product liability claims, and complex business disputes. Known for his strategic approach and in-depth courtroom expertise, Moye has secured life-changing verdicts and settlements for his clients. His ability to deliver exceptional results has made him a trusted ally for those seeking justice in their most critical legal battles.

“Being inducted into ABOTA is a tremendous honor and one of the highlights of my career,” said Moyer. “ABOTA’s mission to uphold the civil jury trial system and promote professionalism among attorneys aligns perfectly with my dedication to advocating for my clients and ensuring fairness and justice.”
