

Public Voting Opens for 13th Annual We Love Christian Music Awards

Nominees announced in 22 categories with Forrest Frank, Brandon Heath, Terrian & We Are Messengers leading the way. Live awards ceremony set for April 8, 2025.

NASHVILLE, TN, UNITED STATES, December 3, 2024 /EINPresswire.com/ -- The We Love Christian Music Awards, now in their 13th year, have officially announced their nominees, showcasing the brightest talents in Christian music. Forrest Frank leads with an impressive 7 nominations, followed closely by Brandon Heath, Terrian, and We Are Messengers, each earning 5 nominations. Other artists like CeCe Winans, Jordan Feliz, and Hulvey received 4 nominations, highlighting a diverse array of impactful music in the past year.

In a testament to its continued commitment to amplifying grassroots artistry, this year's We Love Awards celebrate a record number of independent artists among the nominees. A total of 74 artists have been nominated across 22 categories, including 31 independent artists—representing 42% of all nominees and setting a new record in the award's history. This unique feature sets the awards apart, providing a platform where emerging and established artists share the spotlight, reflecting the full spectrum of creativity within Christian music.

About Advancing Native Missions:

ANM is a global missions organization delivering the Gospel to those who still need to hear the Good News of Jesus. We're a little different from the traditional missions organizations you may be familiar with. Instead of sending missionaries to other countries where they have to learn a new language, get used to new ways of living, and make other big adjustments, we support missionaries sharing the Gospel in their own countries. These native missionaries are making a big impact for the kingdom, and you can help. <http://www.advancingnativemissions.com>
