

Azoteq appoints Iton as an independent design house with turnkey design and manufacturing solutions

AUSTIN, TX, UNITED STATES, December 4, 2024 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Azoteq today announced the signing of Iton as an independent design house (IDH). This partnership marks a significant milestone in Azoteq's commitment to delivering cutting-edge solutions and speeding up product development processes.

Founded in 2006, Iton has established itself as a leader in smart product design, research and development, and OEM/ODM services. Iton has a manufacturing facility covering 14,000 square meters, augmenting the design activity with full production capabilities.

Iton is focused on quality management and rapid delivery. Their dedication to improving product assembly processes aligns with Azoteq's mission to provide exceptional, reliable products. As an IDH, Iton will leverage its extensive knowledge of sensor technologies and embedded systems to support Azoteq's diverse range of products.

Iton's expertise will accelerate the product development process. Their expertise in MCU, radio, memory, IoT and embedded design creates a one-stop-shop for turnkey designs.”

Jean Viljoen, Azoteq CSO
