

Zatuchni & Associates Offers Legal Help to Workplace Retaliation Victims in New Jersey

Renowned New Jersey employment law firm protects workers facing workplace retaliation, offering comprehensive legal support across New Jersey.

LAMBERTVILLE, NJ, UNITED STATES, December 3, 2024 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Zatuchni & Associates, a leading employment law firm in New Jersey, is committed to protecting the rights of employees who have been victims of workplace retaliation. The firm's enhanced focus addresses the growing need for expert legal representation in retaliation cases, which often emerge after employees report discrimination or harassment.

"Workplace retaliation can devastate careers and lives," says David Zatuchni, Founder and Managing Attorney. "We're committed to protecting employees who face backlash for standing up against discrimination. Our experience on both sides of employment law gives us unique insights into building successful cases against even the largest corporations."

The firm's comprehensive approach covers various forms of workplace retaliation, including wrongful termination, demotion, harassment, and post-employment retaliation. Zatuchni & Associates has secured notable victories, including a landmark $3.2 million whistleblower settlement, one of New Jersey's largest such awards.

Recent client George Lancaster shares, "I have truly enjoyed my experience working with David as he handled my employment case. Though an expert in this field of law and with years of real-life practical experience, he was open to collaboration in dealing with various aspects of how the case could best be handled. I am very pleased with him and the results he orchestrated."
