

the*gamehers Reinvents Its Annual Awards Gala to Create a Global, Year-Long Celebration of Women in Gaming

*the*gamehers Awards Expands to Recognize 100 Women Across 10 Categories with Comprehensive Year-Round Honors*

NEW YORK, NY, UNITED STATES, December 4, 2024 /EINPresswire.com/ -- the*gamehers, the largest community celebrating women and femme-identifying persons in gaming, has announced its 2025 Awards will spotlight 100 extraordinary women across 10 categories. For the first time, the achievements of these women will be celebrated across a year-long platform to ensure their lasting impact on the industry is celebrated.

Building on the success of previous years, the new format is designed to provide continuous recognition and support to winners including cash prizes, personalized articles, exclusive digital features, and ongoing engagement through the*gamehers app. Virtual recognition streams throughout March 2025 will make the awards globally accessible, ensuring inclusivity for all honorees and their supporters.

Rebecca Dixon, CEO of the*gamehers, shared the vision behind the transformation: "the*gamehers Awards have always been about more than just recognition—they're about inspiring change and creating opportunities. In 2025, we're amplifying that mission by
