Holdings, a privately held investment firm focused on healthcare technology and tech-enabled services, is excited to announce the acquisition of HealthRev Partners, a leading provider of revenue cycle management (RCM) services for the home health and hospice market. This acquisition complements Creach Family Holdings' portfolio, which includes Careficient, a top electronic medical record (EMR) provider for home health and hospice agencies.

By combining HealthRev Partners' RCM expertise with Careficient's innovative EMR platform, Creach Family

Holdings aims to offer an integrated suite of solutions that streamline operations, improve revenue cycles, and enhance patient care for home health and hospice providers.

Creating a Seamless Solution for Home Health and Hospice Providers

HealthRev Partners is recognized for its technology-driven solutions that help home health and hospice organizations manage billing, coding, and revenue cycle processes efficiently. This acquisition strengthens Creach Family Holdings' ability to offer a comprehensive solution to the home health and hospice market, addressing challenges such as regulatory compliance and operational efficiency.

Gene Creach, CEO of Careficient and Senior Manager at Creach Family Holdings, commented, “The acquisition of HealthRev Partners significantly expands our ability to serve the home health and hospice sectors. By combining their revenue cycle management expertise with Careficient's comprehensive EMR solution, we provide a seamless platform that reduces administrative burdens, improves cash flow, and allows providers to focus on delivering high-quality patient care. This acquisition reflects our commitment to advancing healthcare technology and improving patient outcomes.”

Strengthening Capabilities in the Home Health and Hospice Market

HealthRev Partners' RCM services are tailored to the needs of the home health and hospice sectors, where managing reimbursements and ensuring compliance are critical. Through this acquisition, HealthRev Partners will benefit from Creach Family Holdings' operational expertise. The partnership with Careficient allows both organizations to offer the most integrated solution suite for the home health and hospice markets.

Mike Greenlee, CEO of HealthRev Partners, said, "We are thrilled to join Creach Family Holdings. For years, HealthRev Partners has been focused on helping home health and hospice providers optimize their revenue cycles. Now, through this partnership, we can expand our service offerings and technology solutions to create more opportunities for improved client outcomes."

Expanding Creach Family Holdings' Healthcare Vision

The acquisition strengthens Creach Family Holdings' position as a leader in healthcare services and technology, particularly in the home health and hospice markets. By combining the strengths of HealthRev Partners and Careficient, Creach Family Holdings provides healthcare organizations with a data-driven solution that reduces costs, accelerates reimbursements, and improves care delivery.

Bill Creach, Senior Manager for Creach Family Holdings, added, "This acquisition is a critical step in our strategy to become a dominant force in healthcare technology. By combining HealthRev's RCM expertise with Careficient's EMR platform, we're offering healthcare providers the tools they need to succeed in an increasingly complex industry."
