

The CJ Group Welcomes Becky Shull, CPA, as Firm Administrator

The CJ Group strengthens its growth strategy by continually attracting top talent to drive superior insights and exceptional client services.

FRISCO, TX, UNITED STATES, December 4, 2024 /EINPresswire.com/ -- The CJ Group is delighted to announce the addition of Becky Shull, CPA, as our new Firm Administrator. With over 11 years of experience in the accounting and business advisory industry, Becky brings exceptional leadership and operational expertise to our team, aligning seamlessly with The CJ Group's culture of innovation, excellence, and personalized client service.

Becky's career has been distinguished by her dedication to helping businesses, nonprofits, construction firms, real estate professionals, and employee benefit plan sponsors achieve their financial and operational goals.

Her background includes extensive experience in audit, compilation, and review services and consulting for closely held organizations. Her specialized knowledge of employee benefit plan audits and ability to navigate complex financial landscapes have established her as a trusted advisor.

In her new role, Becky will oversee the day-to-day administration and operations of The CJ Group, ensuring the firm continues to deliver exceptional service while fostering growth and innovation.

She is committed to optimizing internal processes, supporting team members, and streamlining
