

Pop Rocker Charley Young Producer Seth Duncan Release "Under The Sky"

Iconix Radio Promotion Features Charley 176 Stations

HOUSTON, TX, UNITED STATES, December 5, 2024 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Today international music video award winning Charley Young (SAG-AFTRA AEA BMI) announced that her latest project, a collaborative effort with noted producer Seth Duncan, has been released and now available on all major distribution streams. Additionally, the song titled "Under The Sky" has been chosen by the globally syndicated Iconix Radio to spin up to five times per day on their popular "Iconix Radio Takeover" program for special guests. Charley shares, "It's always a great time working with Seth. We've created this 'Miami Vice' type sound that references the '80s while still being current and fresh. It's an honor to get spins from Rosii and Anthony Johnson at Iconix as they are a great team working on big projects!" Also on international playlists for the month of December is Charley's version of the holiday favorite "Mele Kalikimaka". Charley shares, "2024 was a productive year and I remain extremely humbled by the warm heartfelt encouragement I receive from both the industry and fans alike. Mele Kalikimaka is my favorite Christmas song since I too grew up where it's warm and bright! Happy Holidays!" Charley is already well into her plans for 2025 that include even more studio collaborations and both performance and story telling music videos.
