In "Little Cat," the protagonist, Akiko, is a tiny, Moon Elf assassin who stands out in more ways than one. Instead of following through on her mission, she finds herself saving the very royals she was meant to kill. Her actions lead to her capture and imprisonment in the Kingdom of Adhara, where she is abandoned by her Assassin Guild and marked as an outcast.

Bound to a wagon wheel and betrayed by her own people, Akiko finds herself questioning everything. However, as the journey unfolds, she discovers that she is not entirely alone. With the help of a wizard who reveals cryptic stories of secret warriors, dragons, and dark forces gathering in the east, Akiko's world shifts. In a land on the brink of war, she must confront her past, face treacherous foes, and uncover a hidden power within herself.

characters. With breathtaking storytelling and an unforgettable heroine, “Little Cat” is set to become a new fantasy classic—available on Amazon, Barnes & Noble, and other major online bookstore retailers.
