

Announcing the Incredible Results from the 2024 Australian & New Zealand Boutique Wine Awards

Celebrating its 29th year, this prestigious event received 815 entries from across Australia & New Zealand and has been hailed as the best awards to date.

SYDNEY, NSW, AUSTRALIA, December 6, 2024 /EINPresswire.com/ -- The 2024 Australian & New Zealand Boutique Wine Awards have come to a close, and the results are nothing short of incredible. Established in 1996 and celebrating its 29th year, this prestigious event received 815 entries from all corners of Australia & New Zealand, making it the 3rd highest number of entries in the awards' history. With 18 classes judged by 10 of the countries' very best wine minds and chaired by Toni Paterson MW, this year's awards have been hailed as the best to date.

Wine quality was exceptional! Add in the best possible combination of expert wine judges and a great back of house team underpinned by market leading Drinkme Digital tech, and we have a new benchmark”

Ross Anderson, Director - Boutique Wine Awards

The Australian & New Zealand Boutique Wine Awards is a highly anticipated event in the wine industry, recognizing and celebrating the best boutique wines from these two countries. A boutique winery is defined as crushing 250 tonne or less and being independently owned and operated. This year's competition was fierce, with a diverse range of entries from established wineries to up-and-coming boutique producers. The judging panel, made up of 10 of Australia's leading winemakers, sommeliers and wine writers, had the difficult task of selecting the best wines in each of the 18 classes.

The overall caliber of entries received was without a doubt the highest ever seen, and the winners are nothing short of exceptional. With the 3rd highest number of entries ever recorded, the competition was fierce, and the judges had their work cut out for them. However, with the expertise of the 10 best wine minds in the country and the leadership of Toni Paterson MW, the awards have been hailed as the best to date. This year's winners represent the very best of the boutique wine industry in Australia and New Zealand, and their success is a testament to their dedication and passion for producing exceptional wines.
